I grew up in York, Pennsylvania, after Red Lion Area Senior High School, I began attending The Pennsylvania School of Culinary Arts in Lancaster, Pennsylvania where I currently reside. I graduated Culinary school in 2015, with an associate's degree in specialized business and a Chef de Culinare title. I immediately began managing kitchens, while still practicing my art hobbies on the side, until after so long, my modeling was becoming bigger than my cooking. About 2 years ago, after losing my mother to mesothelioma lung cancer, I started modeling heavily, feeling that I didn't want to miss my small window of opportunity. I created a few media pages and have been modeling full time ever since. Over the past year, I have been published 4 times, gracing the cover of Model Throwdown; I have competed as a model in a

L'oreal hair competition, as well as been a model in a PPA competition where the images I was featured in were awarded second place.

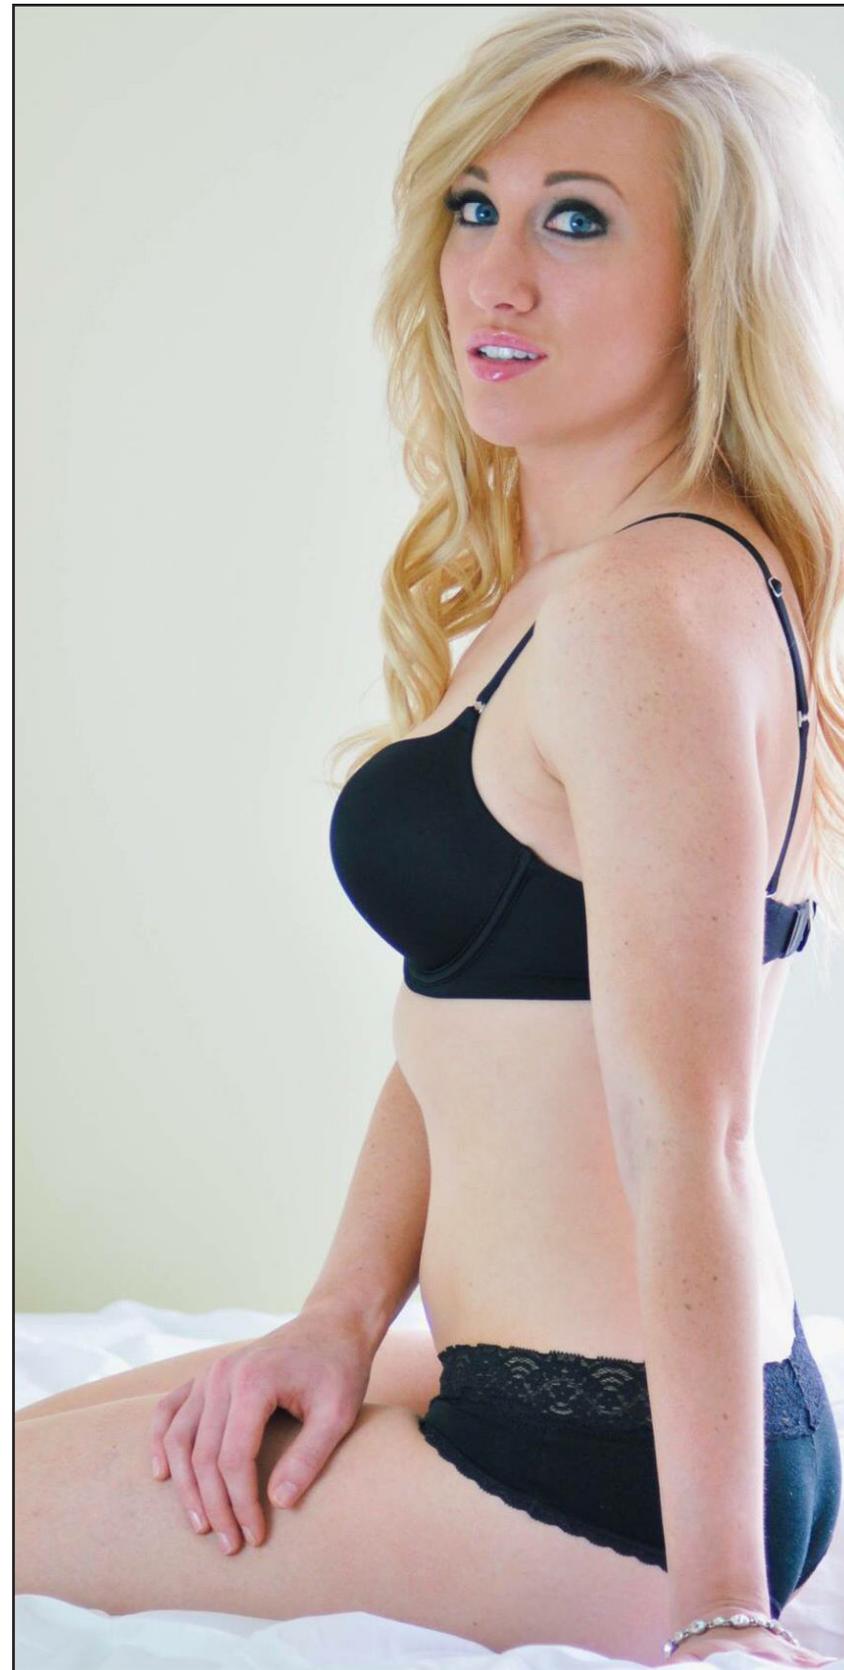

I have worked as a free lance model travelling the east coast from New York City to Tallahassee, Florida, and even San Juan, Puerto Rico. Currently, I regular Scott Church Studios in Lebanon, Pennsylvania, where we run community events as well as model and photographer shoot outs and a mentorship program taught by Scott Church for photographers. You can usually find me there spending time with the studio cats and tending our budding rooftop garden, or visiting my father and husky in York!

Kat Gemini

Kat Gemini (Kaitlyn Leonard) is a slightly new addition to The Unico Exclusive and a rising star in the glamour modeling industry. Kat is a Goth-Glam fashion model based in Texas/Arizona who mainly specializes in gothic culture, glamour fashion and feline cosplay with a wide range of genres from various fashion styles branching out to lingerie suits and nature shots. Kat has been modeling only a few short months (since September 2019) but is already more involved and motivated than ever expected. Not only is she a top model for digitally originated companies; The Unico Exclusive, Deep Texas Beauties, and Vision of Punk inc., but she is also an official blogger for both The Unico Exclusive and her personal site. Including her current publication with T.U.E , Kat Gemini is soon set to be in publications for VoP and DTB coming up in the near future.

CEO Brandon Wesley of The Unico Exclusive first noticed Kat's eagerness and motivation to becoming a model through her excessive social media posts, increased photo quality, and the trouble of taking matters into her own hands by creating a personal Facebook page for her modeling to kick off. It was that very persistent behavior and confidence that made Brandon sign her almost instantly last October. Brandon contacted Kat through her social media accounts and got her set up with the agency via email sealing the deal. Kat signed a 2 year contract with T.U.E early October 2019, and although it's only been about 6 months she is already beyond devoted to her career as a fashion model and fits right in with TUE's family perfectly. To top it all off, Kat's husband, Dustin Leonard was also accepted to be a part of our incredibly talented team, being signed along with Kat as her personal photographer and a very important part of The Unico Exclusive.

So you now know plenty about Kat Gemini's career, how about her personal life? What does Kat do outside of chasing her modeling dreams? Quite a lot actually! Kat tries her best to stay busy and relaxed all at once through her daily routine. Other than loving the camera as much as it's starting to love her, Kat's greatest passion in life is music. Kat is almost always singing, writing or listening to her favorite songs every day. She also enjoys nature walks, quality time with her two boys and husband, light meditation and yoga practices; just as well as an occasional video game here and there. As mentioned before she even blogs for The Unico Exclusive and her personal website too.

At the end of the day, Kat is just a shy, down to earth gothic girl finding her confidence and muse through her unnerving passion for photography and music; taking life one day at a time, making the most of each passing moment and aiming for a bright, successful future. Fans and potential followers to be can view images and videos from the astounding portfolio Dustin and Kat have worked to create together, via Facebook.com/pages/KatGemini-Model and their official website katgemini.weebly.com created and managed by the infamous Kat Gemini herself.

I come from a very small town. Just a southern small town girl seeking out her dream. I have two children whom I love very much and want to make something of myself for them. I haven't traveled much never seen the world. But I have big dreams that one day I might. I am a survivor of domestic violence. And transformed myself into a strong warrior goddess. I achieve to become a published model and also follow my heart into getting my degree in drug and alcohol counseling and helping others find the light out of the darkness. I hope you find it in your heart to accept my application

Naomi can't stop and won't stop. That's probably why sculpting tools, clay and makeup brushes are her best friend. Running on sheer drive and a relentless vision, Naomi will cross the finish line and then will keep on sprinting for miles. For her, there's no point in slowing down when there's limitless potential for change.
