I started dancing at age 3 under the tuition of the legendary Pauline Kellett at The Polka School Of Dance (Now PK Dance Academy) Warrington, UK. I was trained in ballet, tap, modern, Irish to name just a few styles and competed in many competitions and performed in several professional shows and pantomimes.

I went on to train at The Hammond School in Chester which is a full time professional dance boarding school. However, I always went back to Mrs Kellett over the years. I danced professionally in various dance groups over the years and performed at professional sports events and as a backing dancer at music festivals. I have done a bit of teaching too before going into the fitness industry as a personal trainer and class instructor and now a professional model.

My love for dance will never leave me.

How and when did you start modeling?

I started modeling when I was 16-years old because I got spotted at a local mall by a modeling school. Barbizon modeling and talent school and agency really helped me get my foot in the door with modeling. I learned basic makeup and hair tricks, how to walk on the runway, how to pose for the camera, how to style my own outfits, anything I needed to know. Before long I was doing magazine and catalog work and really enjoying it!

What type of modeling do you enjoy the most?

I enjoy lingerie modeling the most, and swimwear is a close 2nd. It's very empowering to feel so sexy and glamorous during the photo shoots, and it's great motivation to stay in shape.

How do you stay in shape?

I have 2 treadmills that I use. One is a manual treadmill and one is an electric treadmill. I alternate days on them to work different muscles, but I've got to say that the manual treadmill is definitely harder since it has no assistance. It feels like mountain climbing!

I also use kettlebells of various sizes and a medicine ball. I eat healthy and avoid red meat and fried foods. My favorite veggies are broccoli and cauliflower.

Who has inspired you the most?

My Mom has been a big source of inspiration in my life. She was so supportive of my modeling and the choices I made, and she helped me make wise decisions and investments. I'm part Asian, and in our culture, we really value respect, loyalty, and kindness. She's passed on several years ago, but she taught me the importance of these values, and showed me that they are a vital part of true beauty.

What is your favorite guilty pleasure ?

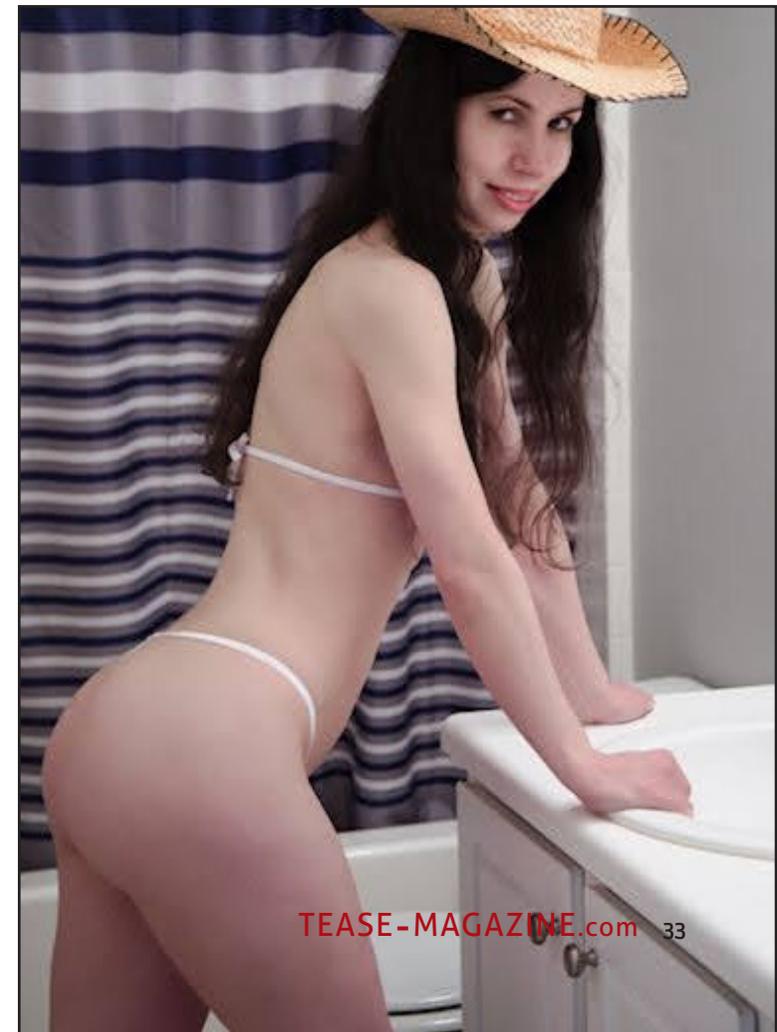

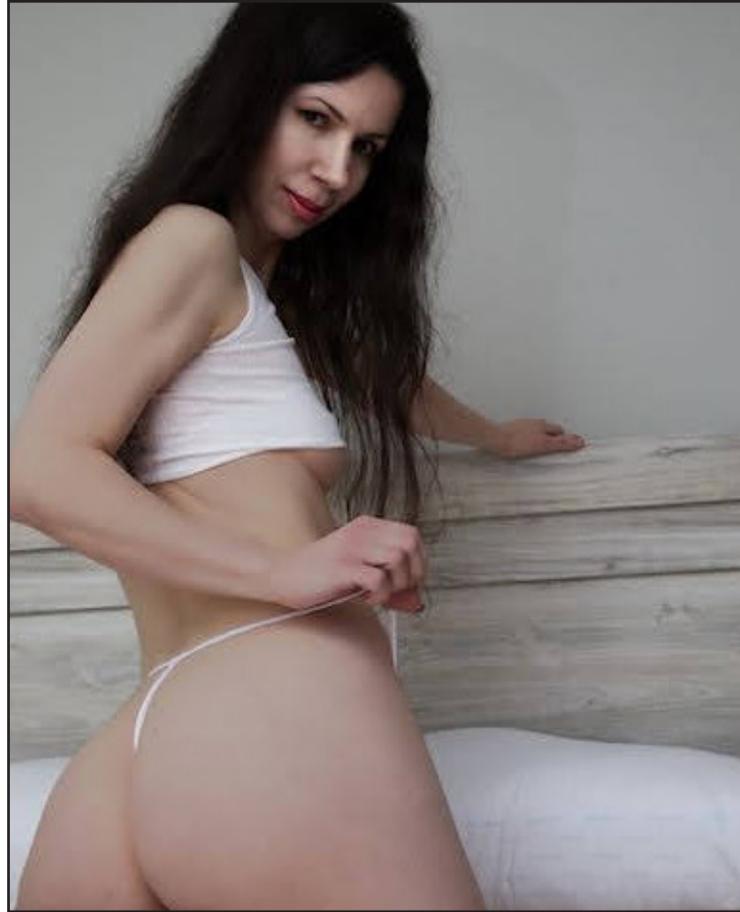

Life is meant to be lived and enjoyed, so I don't deprive myself! I really enjoy ice cream, especially hot fudge sundaes. There's also a chocolate and peanut butter cheesecake that I adore.

The most challenging thing about the modeling world is finding good paying jobs and the competition. But it hasn't stopped me yet. My favorite type of modeling is boudoir - lingerie, glamour, swimsuit. I also love creative outdoor photo shoots. I am looking forward to pursuing my goals further here in the USA.

My experience as a model has been a great journey! I had always enjoyed taking pictures and editing them but I started thinking to myself, why not put myself in the shot? I also do love fashion and I didn't have a photographer so I'd asked friends and even used a timer! I know lame but it was a good start. I later found an album in my moms room. I went through it and my mom was so beautifully dress and always got her pictures taken. I turned more pages and saw pictures of me. I always wanted to look as beautiful as her and she taught me how to pose and got me outfits on what to wear. Then on, I decided that I wanted to be a model and give it a shot. After I decided to make a portfolio from a site. I posted my pictures and started getting likes and comments and telling myself, I can do this. The most challenging thing for me was confidence but each and every-day I get better and pushed myself forward. I even went to a school for modeling and acting to face the fears.. After graduating I just kept building my site and applied to many casting. I then saw an open call for a runway show took classes on how to better walk in stilettos. It was not just about the height. I am 4'11 and let me tell you, I learn to stand tall without being tall. You will discover rocky roads but more than ever, excitement and achievements. In my journey I like to show and tell others that you are beautiful just the way you are. Your mindset is what creates all.

In this "Tease Magazine" you will get to see the more intimate part of me. One thing about models you can create so many beautiful characters of yourself. Hope you like it!
